

KLIFO is looking for a QA Officer for our Glostrup office

Would you like to use your QA experience as QA Officer and support our highly skilled manufacturing department with a variety of quality support tasks? And would you like to work for a small and very client-focused company?

At KLIFO, we're looking for a new colleague to become part of our highly experienced Quality Assurance Team reporting to Anne Ploug Jørgensen, Senior Director Quality Assurance.

The position:

As QA Officer you will be working with a diversity of traditional QA tasks for our local production as batch review, deviations, complaints and CAPAs as well as writing of SOPs.

Qualifications:

Preferable you are a pharmacist or have an education that makes you able to become a QP Delegate.

You must have at least one years' experience with QA work or pharmaceutical manufacturing.

We offer:

As our new QA Officer you will:

- Get the opportunity to bring all your pharmaceutical competences into play in a position with many different QA tasks

- The opportunity to develop your skills within all aspects of traditional QA and QMS
- Later on the possibility to become a Lead auditor can be an opportunity for the right candidate
- Join an open, flexible and positive working environment with a high degree of influence and transparency
- Collaborate with a team of dedicated and experienced colleagues

Location:
